Dear Brethren,

Hope all is well. Everything here at the Tri Cities School of Preaching is great! The students seem to be settling in and studying hard.

Sherry has had some issues with her hearing and has an appointment with an ear doctor soon. It is possible that she may have to have surgery on her ear canal. Ema is doing fine, studying hard for school. As for me, I have been busy with enrollment of students, teaching, and doing some preaching. As the holiday season approaches we hope that everyone has a safe and happy Thanksgiving.

We want to thank you for all the support that you send. Without your support and prayers we would not be able to help train these men. It is great to know that you care so much for the Lord's Church that you support this great work. Once again thank you for all you do and may God continue to bless you.

In his Service
Jeff Johnson
