Dear Brethren,

Hope all is well! A new quarter has begun and we have a new student starting this quarter. Alek Aker is from Abingdon Virginia. We normally don't accept students in the winter quarter but he was so eager to start, we made an acceptance.

The other students are doing well and studying hard. This quarter can be difficult for them because of the two holidays that fall within this quarter. During those holidays a lot of the students travel home to be with their families.

This quarter I am teaching the Religion of Islam, Psalms and Deuteronomy. I am always excited to teach books and religions such as these, for you learn something new each time.

Being in a new home we are excited about the holidays. We have room now that all our family can visit us and have dinner at our house now. So, for the holidays we will be staying in the East Tennessee area.

Thank you so much for the support that you send to us as we labor here at the School of Preaching. Without your help, prayers and support this work would not be possible. May God continue to bless you and thank you again.

In his Service
Jeff Johnson
