

Hello, Brothers and Sisters! Happy December! It is hard to believe this year is almost over, and with it, I am nearing the end of my first year at Tri-Cities School of Preaching and Christian Development. Looking back at the year, this has been one of the most challenging but rewarding things I have done. The growth is evident, and I look forward to what the next year holds!

The TCSOP Lectureship is upcoming in April. The theme is Jesus Christ: Center of the Old Testament. A highly requested follow-up from last year's theme, Jesus Christ: Center of the New Testament. My topic this year is 1&2 Samuel. The dates for the lectureship will be April 6th-9th, 2025. I will speak on Monday the 7th from 1100-1200. If it is anything like last year, online viewing will be available. I will confirm this closer to the time and email instructions a week or two before the lectureship.

After taking a few months off, I returned to prison ministry. I am taking a step back after teaching the 5th and 6th graders for the past year. I will resume teaching next spring or summer—possibly a teen or adult class. Sierra is teaching the kindergarten class on Wednesday nights this quarter. She has missed teaching the past few months and is excited to return to it.

Savannah is now three months old and is growing well. She is still on the smaller end but is perfectly healthy. She has finally learned to keep her head up. Unfortunately, she has decided that trying to divebomb out of our arms is the funniest thing in the world.

We greatly appreciate your continued support and could not do it without you! We look forward to seeing you as soon as we possibly can!
